JAMESON THE DISTILLER'S SAFE

NOSE

From floral perfume, through fresh herbs, to lively spices, this special selection of distillates shows how the subtle delicate sweet notes of Irish grain whiskey can complement the more robust character of the Irish pot still whiskey.

TASTE

Starts off with barley sugar sweetness, progressing to hints of cinnamon and even a touch of liquorice. A vibrant note of mandarin orange appears alongside the nuttiness of ground almond.

FINISH

Stays light and zesty, with barley making a late appearance.

JAMESON THE COOPER'S CROZE

NOSE

A subtle flower petal-perfume develops into rich ripe fruits, while some charred oak and cedar wood bring balance and complexity - a seamless infusion of American and Spanish oak character.

TASTE

The initial impression is from the sweet vanilla of the American ex-bourbon barrels. This brings added depth to the rich fruits typical of the ex-oloroso sherry butts. A pleasant touch of hazelnut and toasted wood complement the pot still spices.

FINISH

Pleasantly long, with vanilla sweetness slowly fading to barley grains with a touch of oak char.

JAMESON THE BLENDER'S DOG

Nose

From light citrus to pineapple, mango and kiwi notes, with the addition of figs and dates.

A touch of walnut leads into the contribution of the seasoned American barrels and Spanish butts, vanilla and toasted oak.

TASTE

A rich, round, creamy mouthfeel, with the sweetness of butterscotch, giving way to the prickle of the pot still spices. Succulent fruit brings the perfect balance as charred oak with some subtle tannin add to the complexity.

FINISH

Exceptionally long, as the luscious fruit is slow to fade.
